

RELIVE THESE SCENES

In the wake of the untimely departure of Cultural Medallion recipient Chua Ek Kay (picture), 30 pieces from the late artist's Street Scenes collection will be available for public viewing this week at the Singapore Management University's Lee Kong Chian School of Business, on levels 4 and 5, which are usually off-limits to the public.

Interested parties can approach the building's security country on the ground floor.

TREVOR TAN

SMU's Street Scenes collection, which is valued at $300,000, was donated by Chua last year as part of the school's Visual Arts Initiative.

The acclaimed Chinese ink artist passed away on Saturday at the age of 61. He was diagnosed with nose cancer three years ago, but had been given a clean bill of health. Last month, he was hospitalised after a nose-bleed episode. He is set to be cremated on Thursday at the Mandai Crematorium.

For enquiries on the exhibit, call Jillian Ang at 2828 0173.