

Publication: Time Out Singapore, p 59

Date: February 2008

Headline: Arthur's Sociopolitical Art

The Gallery at the School of Economics and Social Sciences

Singapore Management University, 81 Victoria St (6828 0100, www.smu.edu.sg).
■ Dhoby Ghaut. Daily noon-8pm. Enforcing the use of art in the world of knowledge, this SMU gallery seeks to promote the appreciation of art for students, faculty members and visitors alike.

Arthur's Sociopolitical Art

SMU holds an exhibition of renowned eye surgeon professor Arthur Lim's 32 spectacular works in recognition of his other talent. The pieces are his personal observations on Singapore's ever-changing social and political presence, as seen in pieces such as 'Owl', 'Caning' and 'Generation Gap'. Paintings of Minister Mentor Lee Kuan Yew and the late David Marshall are also on show. 20 Feb ► 9 Mar.