CAPSULE BIOGRAPHY

Maartje de Visser is Associate Professor of Law at Singapore Management University. Prior to this, she held appointments at Maastricht University and Tilburg Law School in the Netherlands. Maartje read for law at Maastricht (meester in de rechten, cum laude) and Oxford University (MJur with distinction), and obtained her PhD at Tilburg University (cum laude). The topic of her doctoral thesis formed the basis for her first book, entitled Network-based Governance in EC Law: The example of EC Competition and EC Communications Law (Oxford, Hart Publishing, 2009).

Maartje’s main research interests are in the fields of comparative constitutional law and regional integration. Between 2008 and 2013, she was a member of the European and National Constitutional Law (EuNaCon) project, funded by the European Research Council (ERC), researching the organisation and operation of constitutional review in 11 European countries and the European Union. The results of her research have recently been published as Constitutional Review in Europe – A Comparative Analysis (Oxford, Hart Publishing, 2014). Maartje has further published on judicial networks, EU institutional law and comparative constitutional law. Her current projects include inter alia several papers on specific aspects of integration within the Asian/ASEAN context.
