ALL FOR PEACE

Professor Howard Hunter, president of Singapore Management University (SMU), reads Poem On Peace by SMU student Rohan Narula during the institution’s International Day of Peace celebrations.

Students from 16 nations, carrying their national flags, made wishes for peace in their native languages. The celebrations also included a minute of silence, the distribution of “SMU for Peace” wristbands and a performance by a clarinet ensemble from SMU Symphonia.