Winston Koh (left) and Roberto Mariano of Singapore Management University (SMU) at the launch of the book The Economic Prospects of Singapore last Tuesday at the Li Ka-shing Library on SMU's new city campus. Mariano is professor of economics and dean of the School of Economics and Social Sciences, while Koh is associate professor of economics and associate dean at the same school. The launch was timed a week before the republic's 40th national day and the book charts Singapore's economic transformation and discusses ways to build upon these successes.
