SINGAPORE: Several organisations marked the International Day of Peace on Thursday.

Students from the Singapore Management University dressed in national costumes and recited the universal peace prayer.

The ceremony opened a forum, which featured a discussion on religious issues.

The panel was made up of a sociologist and representatives from universities and religious institutes.

The day was marked too by the Inter-Religious Organisation and charity Mercy Relief.

Both organisations held an observance and prayed for peace for humanity. - CNA /dt