SINGAPORE: Two Singaporeans are among an international network of women who have joined forces to work towards world peace.

Bridget Lew is not only an expert in human resources but she also runs a shelter for displaced workers.

Dr Wong Ting Hway is the first Singaporean doctor to work full-time with the International Red Cross.

Dr Wong and Ms Lew are part of the "1000 Peacewomen Across the Globe" network.

An exhibition about them was opened at the Singapore Management University on Thursday to mark International Women's Day.

The Peacewomen were praised for their efforts by Minister of State for Finance and Transport Lim Hwee Hua, who was the guest of honour at the exhibition opening. - CNA/ir
