SINGAPORE: Singapore Management University students Bhavya Khanna and Anirban Datta have emerged as winners at the inaugural Tata Crucible Business Quiz, held at the NUS University Cultural Centre.

The Tata Crucible quiz, touted as "India's most challenging business quiz", had the audience and contestants at the edge of their seats.

20-year-old Bhavya and 19-year-old Anirban beat eight other teams to take home the grand prize of S$7,000. - CNA/ms
