A Singaporean student takes a closer look at the peace pillar at Singapore Management University (SMU).

SMU’s Myanmar student community initially designed this pillar, titled The White Doves, to mark the United Nations’ International Day of Peace.

Modifications have since been made to the peace pillar to convey their thoughts about those who lost their lives in the recent protests in Myanmar – by adding photos and laying flowers.

Ephraim Loy, 24, is a second-year social science student at SMU.
