SMU students return from Mid-East trip

THIRTY-SIX undergraduates from Singapore Management University are nearing the end of a nine-day study trip to Bahrain and the United Arab Emirates to increase their awareness and appreciation of the culture and economic potential of the Middle East. The delegation returns tomorrow.