The Gallery at the School of Economics and Social Sciences

Singapore Management University, 81 Victoria St (6282 0100, www.smu.edu.sg).

The SMU gallery seeks to promote the appreciation of art for students, faculty members and visitors alike.

Arthur's Sociopolitical Art

SMU holds an exhibition of renowned eye surgeon professor Arthur Lim's 32 spectacular works in recognition of his talent. The pieces reflect his personal observations on Singapore's ever-changing social and political presence, as seen in pieces such as 'Owl', 'Casting' and 'Generations Gap'. Paintings of Minister Mentor Lee Kuan Yew and the late David Marshall are also on show. 20 Feb - 9 Mar.