

Undergrads slug it out in biz skills quiz

STARTING today, university students will be pitting their business, financial and entrepreneurial skills against each other in a business knowledge quiz organised by The Business Times.

The inaugural SPH Foundation Singapore Universities Business Quiz 2009 is managed by SPH MediaBoxOffice and will be held in three rounds over three Saturdays.

Thirty teams of undergraduates from SIM University, National University of Singapore, Singapore Management University and Nanyang Technological University will be whittled down to just four. The finalist teams will compete to win up to $10,000 in cash, prizes and work attachments with financial institutions. Participants and supporters can catch the action at www.razor.tv
